REMINDER: Red Nose Day – Friday 17th March 2022 – Non-Uniform Day!

To support Red Nose Day, for this year's Non-Uniform Day we are asking that children wear something that makes them or their school smile! This could be their favourite outfit, a funny costume or something else that just makes them happy! We ask that you do not bring cash donations into school but that you make your donation via this link. Thank you. To learn more about how Red Nose Day spend the money raised, please visit Red Nose Day.

Odd Socks Day for Down Syndrome Awareness – Tuesday 21st March 2023

World Down Syndrome Day is celebrated on 21st March and we would love you to join in by wearing odd socks and, if possible, by donating 50p on the day, which we will pass on to Downright Special. The Odd Socks campaign is on the 21st because Down Syndrome affects the 21st chromosome and the 3 strands of Chromosome 21 just happen to look like odd socks. Please click here for more information and let us recognise and celebrate diversity and the differences that make us all unique and special. Please note children should wear their school uniform as usual but it would be wonderful to see some amazing, odd sock combinations! Pull up your Odd Socks for World Down Syndrome Day!

E-Safety – Tutor Hunt – Internet Safety and Safeguarding

While the Internet can be a great resource for children, parents should be aware of what their child is accessing online. This link to Tutor Hunt will help guide parents and adults with Internet Safety awareness, support and tools to prevent children accessing harmful material online such as inappropriate content, cyberbullying,  online predators and sexual harassment.

For further advice, please visit our E-Safety Information page by clicking here.
