

Malleable – Continuous Provision – Autumn

Previous learning...	What we are doing now...	What we will be doing next....	Key questions?
Explore different textures of malleable materials Make patterns and imprints in the dough using body parts (such as fingers), talking about what they see. Use senses to explore malleable materials and develop vocabulary to describe what they can see, feel, hear and smell.	Developing the muscles in my fingers required to support the tripod grip for fine motor and handwriting development. Develop hand-eye coordination, manipulating tools and hands to squeeze, mould, roll and construct. Develop vocabulary and mathematical language through malleable play. Practise following instructions and routines. Develop independence by choosing appropriate resources to carry out ideas and plans to achieve a desired goal or effect. Using imagination through open-ended play.	Recognise how materials change as you mix and cook them. Using materials which have greater resistance such as plasticine/clay to develop sustained fine motor skills Create different-sized balls of dough and weigh them, comparing their weight and ordering the dough.	Show me how you... What does it feel like? What are you going to make? What do you notice when we...? What tool would help you?